1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-12, and 20-31 are drawn to the network arrangement and location of the respective proxy server, classified in class 709, subclass 203.
 - II. Claims 13-19, and 32-38 are drawn to the translation of non-standard chat group commands to standard chat group commands, classified in class 709, subclass 236.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as the provision of servers in the network in order to forward messages from the mobile network. Invention II has separate utility such ability to translate different chat protocols in a network See MPEP § 806.05(d).
